

2nd International Partners Day January 21st, 2022

Dear Erasmus+ and SEA-EU Partners!

On behalf of the organizing committee of the Foreign Languages Centre at the University of Gdańsk in Poland, we are pleased to invite you to our second online International Partners Day 'Working as an Academic during the Pandemic' held on Friday, January 21st, 2022.

This event will focus on our pandemic experience in teaching and learning foreign languages: lessons we have learned about online teaching, challenges we initially faced and practical solutions we have adopted, as well as necessary changes in methodology. Take part in our event to learn about our academic experience in Poland from the teachers' and students' perspective, participate in several workshops led by key speakers during the plenary session, take an active part in the conference by giving your presentation and network with other partners during Q&A sessions. The conference will be conducted in English, via MS Teams.
